Legend

Vol. XXXIV

*Weequahic High School
Newark, New Jersey*

Reflections

Four years ago we were all Alices, peering thru the looking glass . . . bewildered, bemused . . . beset by countless frivolous frustrations, mocking challenges

Four years we wandered thru Wonderland . . . searching, exploring . . . struggling to seek ourselves . . .
exposing rebellious minds

Leaving, we ponder our reflections . . .
working, thinking, laughing, hoping . . . dreaming walking thru halls running down stairs escaping . . . out doors

Reflections of . . . dances, football games, study halls, assemblies, lunch periods, homeroom chatter smiles

tears

friends

. . . dreams

We are now the completed sum of our reflections

Our faces have merged

Our experiences have transcended time

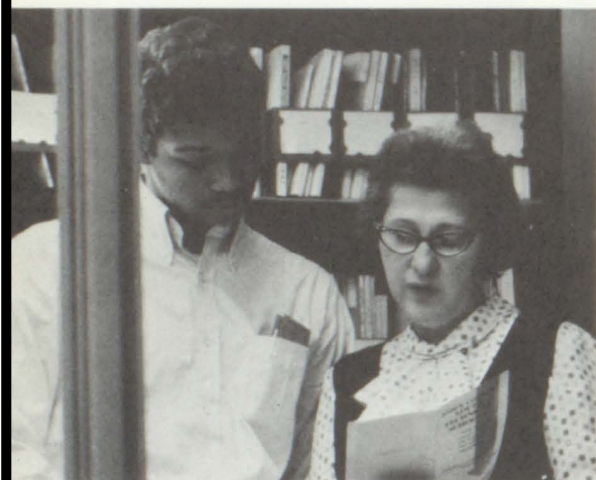

We reach out towards the years ahead as a reflection of the past

And leave behind only broken bits of colored glass

Administration and Faculty

And I will speak to thee of that wisdom and vision which, when known, there is nothing for thee to know . . .

DR. BENJAMIN EPSTEIN

The theme of the Legend of the Class of June, 1967, is "Reflections". To be able to look back is a mark of coming of age—of reaching adult maturity. It is not easy to learn that it is always what happened in the past that determines what the future will be like. Each one of you will become acutely aware that what you did in your classes, the books that you read in your spare time, the friends that you made, the discussions that you held, the attitudes that you developed, will all become tools with which you create your future. That future is one of great uncertainty at this moment. In the years that follow away from Weequahic, you will have the possibility of creating a thrilling new world. Man is at the threshold of curing almost any disease, of eradicating poverty, of ending war for all time, of exploring the vastness of space, of creating a life in which all men live in equality, dignity and decency. It is equally possible that man may waste this glorious opportunity and exchange it for one of strife and self-destruction. It is your generation that will, in the final analysis, have to decide which it will be, and then make it come true. When you reflect about the past, do it not merely for a moment's sentimental nostalgia. Think rather about where we go from here.

Reflections

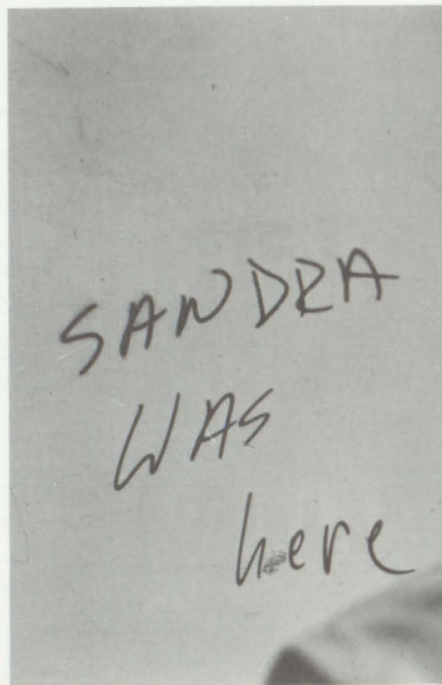

Your greatest problem is yourself
You are also your greatest treasure . . .

What happens to lost things? Where are they now?
Who could use my memories? How?
Did people find them? Use them?
Throw them away?
Lost things—where do they end—Lost things, lost: pennies, pencils, buttons, books, keys . . .
cares, friendships, love, youth

And will we meet again?
Oh, but surely!—holidays, and then,
In a year, we will again meet,
This very place, and yet,
The laughter will be gone . . .

I stood among them but not of them; a shroud of thoughts which were not their thoughts . . .

As I walk alone
I run and fling myself free.
I always search for

"Throw the ball this time, NOT the glove . . . remember, not the glove"

Athlete Manny Rosenberg has trouble "meeting the ball" . . . mainly because his eyes are closed!

Happy Steve Saible is about to "swing away"

"I know he threw the glove again Mr. Ginsberg, but he really didn't mean it!"

"Umph!!"

Dr. Epstein leads off the faculty inning in which 13 runs were scored

Mr. McClucas demonstrates his "one-handed-bent knee" throw

Seniors

Life grabs us by the hand and runs.
We tear through seconds, minutes, hours,
Hardly touching them.
The world is a blur of images,
We cannot understand.
We stretch our hands to touch them.
"No time!" Life shouts, "No time!"
We beg him go more slowly, to walk, That we might linger in the Laughter of our friends.
"No time! No time!"
Life darts away.
And we hang on—we must Or Life will pass us by . . .

A Letter From Heaven

Special Delivery from Heaven

TO: The Kennedy Family FROM: John Fitzgerald Kennedy
Sorry I had to leave right away, I look down and smile at you every day,
Little Patrick says to say "Hi"
I love you, I'm happy,
So please don't cry.

And Caroline I'd like to say, How proud daddy was of you that day,
When you stood like a lady and watched me go by,
And doing as mommy, you tried not to cry.

Little John, now you're the big man, Take care of mommy the best you can,
You were just like a soldier that salute was so brave, Thanks for the flag that you put on my grave.

And Jackie, I had not time for goodbyes,
But I'm sure you could read the "farewell" in my eyes, Watch over our children and love them for me.
I'll treasure your love through eternity.

So please carry before, Till all of us bright shore.
Remember I love care, I'll always be with you Though you do
Love

We're on our way, to meet the foe . . .
This is the day for us to go
And with our banners flying, O so high And with our spirits soaring, to the sky
Now hear our rousing cry Rah, rah, rah, boom!
When we come back, we're sure to see That we have won our victory.
Cheers ring, we bring,
More honors to Weequahic High!
